The Comparison Routine
The comparison routine is part of the Content Enhancement series of instructional strategies. This includes both summarizing when identifying the characteristics that are the same and different between two ideas or concepts, as well as synthesizing when looking for the like and unlike categories and the final statement that ties the details all together.