

Storytelling

Storytelling is a powerful way of teaching and learning that helps to build relationship and make connections between ideas. It is a connector for Indigenous content and ways of knowing and predates current schooling and teaching techniques. The origin of a story is important for us to know and share as we share it with others.

| | | |
|--|--|---|
| Think Indigenous Online Education Grade 4 Storytelling Lesson Chris Scribe https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OxOcSEL9dpM | Christ Scribe teaches a Grade 4 lesson on storytelling using his grandfather Murdo Scribe's award-winning children's book "Murdo's Story" |  |
| Think Indigenous Online Education Grade 4 Storytelling Lesson – Part 2 Chris Scribe https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JdggWJty1s4 | A continuation of Day 1. Chris Scribe moves into an interactive lesson to have children create their own stories. |  |
| Empowering the Spirit Sharing Through Story http://empoweringthespirit.ca/sharing-through-story/ | Sharing Through Story focuses on the power of story through literacy, literature and storytelling resources. |  |

